

Storyteller and Social Media Guru for USAID/Egypt

Project Title	Storyteller and Social Media Guru for USAID/Egypt
Project Summary	Help tell the story of USAID's 40-year legacy in Egypt! You'll research, draft, write, and edit stories and compelling visuals that show development success in Egypt.
Country	Egypt
Agency	Agency for International Development
DoS Office	N/A
Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	2

Project Description

Storytellers wanted! USAID/Egypt is looking for creative, energetic, and talented outreach interns who will draft stories, social media content, and compelling visuals that help bring to life our 40-year legacy in Egypt. The online market in Egypt is sophisticated and competitive; as such, it calls for compelling content and visuals to engage a discerning audience. To help your content reach the widest possible audience in Egypt and in the U.S., you will work with an experienced group of storytellers who will help you grow your skills in drafting engaging, human-centered content for a variety of products and audiences.

Desired skills include:

- Excellent writing and editing skills
- Strong social media skills
- Independent research skills
- Graphic design experience a plus

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

If you're a motivated, creative professional interested in international development, public affairs, and the Middle East, this is the internship for you! You will produce social media content, articles, infographics, and more. For a better sense of what we write about and how we write it, check out @usaidegypt on Twitter and FB.

Language Requirements

None